Hi

Our new sessions have now started and we welcome all the new people who have joined us. We still have vacancies in the Email/Internet classes and the Word 2007 classes on Thursday morning. Anyone interested please contact me. I am off overseas on 26th May for a while, if you need anything while I am away please contact David on 32681485, Thank you.

There is a Public Holiday on Monday 14th June so there are no Basic, Word or Internet/Email sessions this week.

The extra Sessions for June are:

Tuesday 1pm – 3pm

1st – Photos from Camera to Computer – bring Camera

22nd – Scanning 1

29th – Scanning 2

No bookings are necessary for these sessions.

Remember fill in the Advanced Topic Forms to ensure that the things you want to learn are scheduled into the Timetable.

Remember that if there is a session that you want to attend from the list either put your name down when you are at the club or email on scccc@bigpond.net.au. When we get 6 names interested in attending a topic we will schedule a session or series.

We still have a computer for sale if anyone is interested. You can have just the tower or the tower, screen, keyboard and mouse. The computer will run XP or Vista but is not upgradeable to Windows 7.

Did you know that if you registered for the Do Not Call Register to stop Telemarketers from Calling you, that you now have to Reregister. Apparently the registration only lasts 3 years. For those people who have not yet registered it is also time to do it. You can register by going to www.donotcall.gov.au Remember if you are registered that Charities can still call you, so you do not stop all calls but it does help. Registration is easy you can also register by phone on 1300 782 958 or by post by downloading a form from the website and returning the completed form to the address supplied on the form. Forms in other languages are also available.

Happy computing ☺

Hint EMAIL PROBLEMS WITH GMAIL - When you open new messages, some images may not appear immediately. Gmail disables images to protect you from unknown senders, like spammers, who use images and links to verify that your email address is real. Here's how to view those images: Sign in to Gmail. Open the message. Click Display images below in the green box above your message. Or, if you'd like to always view images from a particular sender, click Always display images from sender@domain.com instead. If you choose to always display images from a particular sender, you can disable this functionality at any time by following these steps: Sign in to Gmail. Open the message. Click show details at the top of the message pane. Click Don't display from now on. At the moment, you can't set Gmail to display all images from any sender; you must do this on a per-contact basis. Hope this helps everyone who has this problem.
